

Advisory Group

NADSL's Advisory Group comprises professionals who represent key interests and areas of expertise in the field of safeguarding children, young people and adults at risk. We welcome and value their input, their time, knowledge and enthusiasm, to help develop and advise NADSL on its journey. We are proud to say we have dedicated members from health, voluntary, education, training, faith, local authority and private sectors in our Advisory Group. This superb mix of minds will help NADSL to develop a dynamic multi-disciplinary approach to safeguarding.

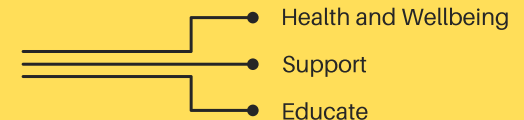

Working Together

Seeing the Bigger Picture

Sharing

Advising

Innovating

